HARLAN FOR MAYOR.

Chicago Republicans Nominate Son of Supreme Court Justice.

John Maynard Harlan was unanimously nominated for mayor of Chicago yesterday by the republican city convention. All except forty-two of the 1,041 delegates to the convention had been instructed for him prior to the meeting of the convention. Mr. Harlan, who is a lawyer, is a son of John M. Harlan, associate justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, and is a brother of President Richard D. Harlan of Lake Forest University and of James S. Harlan, former attorney general

Mr. Harlan was elected to the city coun cil on the republican ticket in 1896. In 1897 he headed an independent ticket for the mayoralty. In 1901 he was candidate before again tried for the nomination, but was defeated by Graeme Stewart. Mr. Harlan was born in Frankfort, Ky., in 1864. He was graduated from Princeton University in 1884 and attended the University of Berlin in 1885. He has resided in Chicago Other candidates nominated at vesterday's convention are: Moses Greenebaum, city treasurer; Francis P. Brady, city clerk; John F. Smulski, city attorney

Ice Gorged 100 Miles.

A dispatch from Cincinnati says: The big ice gorge yesterday extended from fifty miles below to fifty miles above the city, and a large force of men began work with dynamite and nitroglycerine in an attempt to break the gorge sufficiently to save vessels in the harbor here. It is planned to blast an open channel around steamers and barges, so that when the ice finally begins to move the vessels will not be dragged down the river with it.

Pitcher Taylor May Bring Damage Suits

TO CLEAR CHARACTER

ATTORNEY WARD INSISTS UPON FULL INVESTIGATION.

Boston Man Leading Racquet Tourney -Noted Golf Player Dead-Bowling Battles.

Jack Taylor, the pitcher of the St. Louis National League Base Ball Club, was ac-VERCOAT to measure in Mertz's best manner of fine black, blue, brown and fancy mixed fabrics a worth and a control of the charge of misbehavior, Taylor was found guilty and punishment was meted out to him for that offense by the hoard of directors of the National League in the shape of a $300 fine. The three members of the board of directors, Herrmann, Soden and Pulliam, who tried the player by his attorney, John M. Ward,

"When I went before the board, in re-"When I went before the board, in response to a letter of notification received from President H. C. Pulliam, I was immediately informed by Garry Herrmann, who held the proxy of Barney Dreyfuss, that there were no formal charge against me, and that if I was willing the whole case would be dropped. I told Herrmann that in view of the many stories in the newspapers to the effect that I had played dishonest base ball in Pittsburg on July 30, and also in Chicago in the fall of 1903, I wished to have the matter thoroughly in-I wished to have the matter thoroughly investigated then and there; that I was ready to tell nothing but the truth in answer to any questions and that I wished to be ex-onerated in the absence of guilt. Then it was that the board of directors began to frame up a case against me.

"Dreyfuss, who is ill in Pittsburg, was called up on the long distance telephone by Locke, his secretary, and the charges which Locke, his secretary, and the charges which have been made public, were drawn, Locke affixing his signature in behalf of the Pittsburg club. Two lawyers from Pittsburg presented about fifteen affidavits, a majority of them signed by women who attended the ball the night before the game of July 30, to the effect that I was under the influence of liquor and told several friends not to bet on me when I pitched for St. Louis against Pittsburg the next day. I had no against Pittsburg the next day. I had no lawyer when I appeared before the board of directors, and when I asked to see the signatures on the affidavits one of the lawyers declared that he could not disclose them because he had agreed to keep them secret. In order to make his promise good he pro-ceeded to tear the signatures from six affi-

Evidence Was Flimsy.

"There was not the slightest evidence to gamblers, and the only point made clear was that I had met a man named Dick Mc-Cormick, who is said to bet on the ball games in Pittsburg, about five years ago. An affidavit sent on by Robert Emslie, the umpire of the game, to the effect that in his opinion I had done my best was never introduced at all. But affidavits from every member of the St. Louis club, except Beckley, were read, showing that I had played the best ball in my power. Grady, who caught me, swore that he gave a signal for each ball that I pitched and that I never once shook my head. Manager Nichols also testified that I pitched well enough to win with any kind of hitting behind me. I answered all questions and was told that the decision would be reserved. "About two weeks ago I received a contract for the coming season from the St Louis club. It called for a salary of $600 less than I got last year. I sent it back to Mr. Robinson, but, upon the advice of a lawyer in St. Louis, I had it returned to me and signed it three days before I left that city to attend this meeting. Mr ison knew of the charges that had been yet he was willing to have me play ball for him just the same. I lose $600 by this transaction alone, in addition to sev-eral hundred dollars in traveling expenses. In regard to the charges made by Hart, I want to say that Manager Selee of the Chicago Nationals begged me almost on his knees to pitch the last game of the post-season series in Chicago in 1903, after I had told Hart that I would never pitch-another game for him. I have three affidavits in this case, two from policemen who state that they heard me say I got $500 for losing. Hart caused the whole gossip because he was sore at the inability of the Nationals to beat the Americans in that series. I want to have that case and the Pittsburg case pushed to the limit."

Ward, after a long conference with Tay-lor early yesterday morning, proceeded to the Victoria Hotel, where the board of directors were preparing to go into session again, prior to reaching a verdict. When Ward knocked on the door of the star chamber Pulliam appeared and asked what "I have been retained by Taylor," said the lawyer, "and I wish to have a chance to look over the evidence. He should have been represented by counsel here yesterday and has rights that must be protected.'

Lawyer Ward on Hand.

Pulliam told Ward that he would se about it, and the door was closed. The directors were quickly thrown into a panic when they realized that they were likely to encounter legal proceedings. Ward then made the situation even more interesting by sending a formal notice to the directors that as Taylor's lawyer, he demanded a hearing. In less time than it takes to tell t the directors reached a decision, exoner-ating the player in a half-hearted way of the charges of crookedness, but fining him $300 for misconduct which he had admitted himself. Ward held another confab with Taylor, who said that he would pay the fine under protest, and from present indications an appeal will be taken to the national Incidentally Ward will insist that the commission take up the Hart charges against Taylor, at once. He says that the members of the commission, Herrmann, Pulliam and Johnson, will be in town during the next few days, and that Taylor's case must receive due consideration without further delay. Johnson, the president of the American League, arrived in New York last night and will make another effort to have the case taken up. Furthermore, the American League will ask that the case be tried by the commission in open meeting.

Ward will ask that Hart take the stand for a rigid cross-examination.

The following delegates were present when the National League convened: H. C. Pulliam, president; A. H. Soden, Boston; Fred Knowles, New York; C. H. Ebbets and Edward Hanlon, Brooklyn; William Shetts-line and D. L. Reeves, Philadelphia; W. H. Locke, Pittsburg; August Herrmann, Cin-cinnati; James Hart, Chicago; Frank Robison, St. Louis. The subjects discussed were the terms of the world's champion-ship series to be played in the fall, the national agreement and the schedule.

in Tebeau's league in the west. But the National League will have to provide the sinews of war, as the Eastern League has no money to spend in such a struggle.

With a combination of this kind what is to become of the smaller clubs in the Eastern League and the American Association? In every minor league in the country there are underdogs who will not be in sympathy with a scheme to down the American League, and if they find that they are to receive the double cross they will put up an awful howl. At that the American League is fair, and if the minor league demands seem just to the delegates at today's session they will be granted. Otherwise there will be a sharp turn down for them.

In addition to many National League and minor league men who were in town last night, the other arrivals were B. F. Shibe of Philadelphia, Charles Comiskey of Chicago, Robert L. Hedges of St. Louis and C. W. Somers of Cleveland, all American Leaguers. John I. Taylor of the Boston Americans will be there this morning.

STILL HUNTING NAMES. President Noyes Showered With Suggestions for New Club Title. President Tom C. Noyes and Secretary dinor of the Washington Base Ball Club left last evening for New York to attend the annual spring meeting of the American League. The season's schedule will come up for consideration and other important business will be transacted at this meeting. Messrs. Noyes and Minor will remain in New York until Saturday and may make one or more trades of players.

Before leaving for New York yesterday President Noyes had a busy time going mann. Soden and Pulliam, who tried the case, were unanimous in their verdict, and their action was approved by the National League delegates, who went into session for their spring meeting after the board had finished with the Taylor matter.

Before the present controversy over Taylor is at an end several heavy damage suits will probably be brought in behalf of the player by his attorney, John M. Ward, to expect that local pride and support will be the means of lifting it out of the rut that against the persons who have been instrumental in circulating the charges of crookedness. As a name for the ball club I think it ideal; they are hustlers and are never known to quit." One enthusiast, who wants the club called "Columbians," furnished an acrostic argument for the name as follows:

Columbian stands for determination.
Or for grit, to get there just the same.
Let the doubting ones get out of any notion;
United effort is going to win the game.
Many years have marked deterioration,
Base ball here has hereotfore been tame;
In future, though, no need for speculation,
All effort will be for place and fame.

McCORMICK A BREWER.

Second Baseman Has Probably Signed With Milwaukee. From the Milwaukee Sentinel.

Manager Joe Cantillion of Milwaukee, who said a few days ago that he had the strongest infield in the association, based his claim on the fact that he expected to land show that I had acted in collusion with Barry McCormick of Washington for second base.

The deal has gone through, and Joe claims that his infield is about "it." With McCormick comes O'Neill, the outfielder from the Senators, in place of Huelsman, who was to have come to Milwaukee. Stahl did not want to give up Huelsman, and Cantillion agreed to take O'Neill, a good man, if he could secure McCormick in addition. McCormick is expected to fill in that hole at second, where the Brewers

TAKOMA BALL CLUB.

Arrangements Already Under Way for Next Season, A meeting was held last night at the Takema Club and Library for the purpose of organizing a base ball club to represent Taoma during the season of 1905. Nearly all of the members of last year's team were present. Mr. A. A. Jarvis, who acted as chairman, opened the meeting with a few appropriate remarks in which he dwelt briefly upon the success of the team in 1904 and predicted an even greater success for it in 1905. He then spoke of the advantages of early organization. At the conclusion of Mr. Jarvis' remarks the business of the vening was immediately entered upon.

Mr. A. A. Jarvis and Mr. E. Thomas were manimously elected manager and captain, respectively. Mr. A. A. Jarvis was also elected treasurer and Mr. J. H. Waters was lected secretary and scorer. Messrs. At the conclusion of the business of the evening Messrs. W. W. Waters and H. Par-kins made an offer to donate $50 to the club provided the members of the club would raise a like sum. The meeting was then ad-

The members of the Takoma Base Bal Club are very enthusiastic over the outlook for the coming season. Last year the team won the championship of Montgomery coun-ty, Md., and defeated many of the strong teams of the District, losing in all but four games during the entire season. This sea-son they will again compete for the cham-pionship of Montgomery county, and wish also to arrange games with the very strong-est teams of the District. With this object in view the club will expend a great deal of money in fixing up their grounds at Takoma, where they hope to play most of their games, as these grounds are very conven-ient for teams from the District and are better than most of the grounds to be found in the District.

The Takoma club will probably be com osed of about the same men as last year's team. Following is a list of those who will make up the team: A. A. Jarvis, E. King, E. Thomas, E. L. Graeves, D. Gosven, J. H. Waters, D. Judd, S. Brown, H. Gude and F. Favorite. Substitutes—James King and Paul Dexter. Address all challenges to Mr. A. A. Jarvis, Takoma Park, D. C.

RACQUET CHAMPIONSHIP. Payne Whitney Defeated by Scott of Boston.

Payne Whitney of New York was defeated yesterday by H. Scott of Boston in the last of the preliminary rounds for the national amateur racquet championship of America. on the New Jork Racquet and Tennis Club court. Whitney handily won the first two games, but had exerted himself to such an extent that he had little endurance left. In each of the succeeding three matches his play was weaker and slower than in the one preceding, giving Scott the opportunity to qualify for the semi-finals. George Clarke of the New York Racquet and Tennis Club had rather an easy time with his clubmate, C. E. Sards.

GEORGETOWN'S MEET.

Blue and Gray's Annual Event to Be a Big Affair. The greatest athletic carnival in the history of indoor meets, is now the opinion of those in charge of the Georgetown University meet on February 25, at Convention Hall. This was the opinion of Manager Graham and his committees at a meeting held last night at the university building to open the entries for the affair. The list will not be made up until Saturday evening. in order to make sure of all mail entries that may be on the way.

There will be enough relay races among the leading colleges of the land, Yale against Georgetown, Cornell against Co-lumbia of New York, George Washington and Johns Hopkins, and many others. There will be present America's foremost unners in the sprints, Seitz of Georgeown, the present champion and holder of the world's record for the sity and fifty yard marks; Eaton of Williams, the youngster who on Saturday last defeated Seitz in the foryt-yard dash at Boston, and made world's record for the distance; Archie Hahn, the unbeaten western sprinter from the University of Michigan; Torrey of Yale, who won the race last year; Dick Dear of this city, who will run for Pennsylvania; Kent of the Central High School, who at the recent high school meet ran in record time, and P J. Walsh of the Pastime Club of New York. This is the greatest galaxy of spiked shoe artists in the land, and it is a great achievement for Georgetown to get them all together. Another star of the first magnitude who will be present will be Ralph Rose of the University of Michigan, the champion shot and hammer thrower of the land. It is going to be a great meeting, and Convention Hall will have the largest crowd in its history to see an Hour. Joe Grant, the local wrestler, and champion welterweight of the south, dfeated Harvey Parker, champion of the world. last night at the Washington Light Infantry Armory by putting the Brockton boy's shoulders to the mat twice within an hour. The first fall was gained in 22 minutes and 59 seconds, and the second in 21 minutes and 15 seconds. The bout was witnessed by a large crowd of enthusiastic spectators, who "rooted" hard for the local boy. Parker showed by his work last night that he has gone back. Several times he had Grant in a bad position, but he managed to break the holds. Grant had to rely on but one hold, that was successfully used. This was the half-Nelson and scissors hold, with which he won both falls. All of the other holds used by Grant were of no use, as Parker succeeded in breaking them. them. Both bouts were so similar that there was some comment as to there being a "fake." but it was a case of youth against old age, as Parker has been in the wrestling game for some years, and is now forth one years and

NEW ORLEANS RACES.

Second Special Captured Easily by Bertha E.

The change in the weather conditions brought out an unusually large crowd to the New Orleans track yesterday afternoon. An attractive program of races had been arranged and the betting was brisk. The course dried out considerably, and for the first time in two weeks dust was seen on the track. What was considered the day's feature was the Second Special at a half and niece each one-sixth. mile for two-year-old fillies. It was worth in the neighborhood of $1,400 to the winner and brought out a field of five smart young misses. Veribest, the eastern owned filly, was figured out to be the best of the lot and was played down from twos to 3 to 2 at post time. In fact, the race was conceded to her. Jack Phillips, the owner of Bertha E., also thought that his filly had a chance and played her steadily, and under the weight of his commissions the daughter of G. W. Johnson was backed down from 7 to 2 to 14 to 5. Inspector Girl broke in front, but was quickly joined by Veribest. This pair raced together for a short distance, when Phillips cut the corner of the far turn, and, saving a lot of ground, assumed the lead. From there home it was only a gallop for the daughter of G. W. Johnson, she winning pulled up to a walk by two lengths. Summary:

First race, one mile—Brunswick, 111 (W. Robbins), 6 to 1, won; Flora Levy, 104 (Baird), 12 to 1, second; Flying Charcoal, 106 (McIntyre), 11 to 10, third. Time, 1.52 4-5. Belle Bernard, Hakim, Baggerly, Anti-Trust, Bountiful, Heritage, Nandora, Bean and Senor also ran.

The Duke of Portland's famous Derby winner, Donovan, by Galopin, and, barring Isinglass, winner of more money on the turf than any racer in England, recently met his death by running into a tree while under the influence of a fit. The horse was insured for $49,000, and when his owner was apprised of the character of his injuries, he wired at once to put an end to the animal without waiting for the insurance company to examine him. The best horse sired by Donovan was Velas-

H. K. Knapp congratulated P. J. Dwyer yesterday on the report that he had a fine stable of two-year-olds this year. "They do not mention the two that I think most of," was Mr. Dwyer's rejoinder. "Then they're all good!" was the answer. Referring to a report that the New York state racing commission might be increased from three to five members by virtue of an amendment to the present law, two well known race course managers said yester-day that they did not believe there was any such project under way.

At Cannes, France, recently a well known steeplechase jockey named Flint met his death in a peculiar manner. He was rid-ing a horse who won the race, but in be-ing pulled up the horse dashed into a post, throwing his rider, who never regained consciousness. The horse was disqualified be-cause his rider could not weigh out. It is doubtful if this ruling would be followed

Brief of Henry P. Dimond.

A brief in behalf of Henry P. Dimond of California in his habeas corpus case against United States Marshal Shine of that state was filed in the Supreme Court of the United States yesterday. Dimond is one of the men indicted in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia for conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with land frauds. Judge De Hayen of Dimond's district issued a warrant for his removal to this city and denied a petition for a writ of habeas corpus. Dimond sets up in his brief that Judge Lacombe of New York granted a
